3. Standing of Company. The Company acts as an independent contractor, expect with respect to the performance of the following services where Company acts as an "agent" of Customer; entry, release, storage and transportation of goods; post entry services; the securing of export licenses; the filing of export documentation for, or on behalf of the Customer; other dealings with government agencies on behalf of Customer.

4. Services by Third Parties. Unless the company carries, stores, or otherwise physically handles the shipment, the Company assumes no liability as carrier for any loss, damage, expense or delay which occurs during such activity and shall not be held responsible for any loss, damage, expense or delay to the goods to be forwarded or imported except as provided in paragraph 11 and subject to the limitations of paragraph 12 below, but undertakes to use reasonable care in the selection of Third Parties. When the company carries, stores or otherwise physically handles a shipment, it does so subject to the limitation of liability set forth in paragraph 11 below, unless a separate bill of lading, air waybill or other contract of carriage is issued by the Company, in which event the terms thereof shall govern.

5. Liability Limitations of Third Parties. The Company is authorized to select and engage carriers, truckmen, lightermen, forwarders, customs brokers, agents, warehousemen and others, as required, to transport, store, deal with and deliver the goods, all of whom shall be considered as the agents of the Customer, and the goods may be entrusted to such entities subject to all conditions as to limitations of liability for forwarders, Customs brokers, agents, warehousemen and others, more fully set forth herein. The Company shall under no circumstances be liable for any loss, damage, expense or delay to the goods for any reason whatsoever when said goods are in custody, possession or control of the third parties selected by the Company to forward, enter, clear, transport, store or render other services with respect to such goods.

7. Quotations Not Binding. Quotations as to fees, rates of duty, freight charges, insurance premiums or other charges given by the Company to the Customer are for informational purposes only, are subject to change without notice, and shall not under any circumstances be binding upon the Company unless the Company in writing specifically undertakes the handling or transportation of a designated shipment at a specific rate, and such rate is published and/or filed as required by any law, statute or regulation.

8. Duty to Furnish Information.

(a) On an import shipment at a reasonable time prior to entering of the goods through U.S Customs and Border Protection (hereinafter called "Customs"), the Customer shall be solely responsible for the dutiable value, classification, country of origin, quantity, weight, admissibility, identification and genuineness of the merchandise, and shall furnish to the Company truthful and accurate invoices in proper form and other documents necessary or useful in the preparation of the Customs entry and also, such further information as may be necessary and sufficient to establish inter alia, Customer's right to import and/or distribute the merchandise pursuant to U.S law or regulation. If the Customer fails to furnish in a timely manner such information or documents, in whole or in part, as may be required to complete U.S Customs entry or comply with U.S laws or regulations or if the information or documents furnished are inaccurate, incomplete, or otherwise insufficient, the Company shall be obligated only to transmit such documentation provided by Customer in connection with the shipment and in no instance shall it be responsible or charged with knowledge by the Customer of additional or alternative circumstances to which any inaccurate, incomplete, omitted or otherwise insufficient information or document pertains. Where a bond is required by Customs to be given for the production of any document or performance of any act, the Customer shall be deemed bound by the terms of the bond notwithstanding the fact that the bond has been executed by the Company as principal, it being understood that the Company entered into such understanding at the instance and on behalf of the Customer, and the Customer shall indemnify and hold the Company harmless for the consequences of any breach of the terms of the bond.

(b) On an export shipment, at a reasonable time prior to exportation of the shipment, but at least sufficiently prior to the deadline for transmitting documentation to Customs or other government agencies, the Customer shall furnish to the Company the commercial invoice in proper form and number, a proper consular declaration, weights, measures, values and other information in the language of and as may be required by the laws and regulations of the U.S and the country of destination of the goods.

(c) On export or import shipment, the Company shall not in any way be responsible or liable for any increased duty, penalty, fine, claim or expense unless caused by the negligence or other fault of the Company, in which event its liability to the Customer shall be governed by the provisions of paragraphs 11 and 12 below. The Customer shall be bound by and warrant the accuracy of all invoices, documents and information furnished to the company by the Customer or its agent for export, entry or other purposes and the Customer agrees to indemnify and hold the Company harmless against any increase duty, penalty, fine, claim or expense including but not limited to attorney's fees, costs and expenses resulting from any inaccuracy, incomplete statement, omission or any failure to make timely presentation of required invoices, documents and information, including ACS and ISF filings, even if not due to any negligence of the Customer.

9. Declaring Higher Valuation. Inasmuch as Third Parties to whom goods are entrusted may limit their liability for delay, loss or damage unless a value is declared and the charge based on such higher value as agreed to by any such Third Party, unless the Company receives specific written instructions from the Customer to pay such higher charge based on valuation, and any such Third Party accepts such higher declared value, any valuation placed by the Customer on the goods shall be considered solely for export or Customs purposes and the goods will be delivered to the Third Party subject to the limitations of liability set forth in paragraphs 11 and 12 below, and subject to the provisions of paragraph 4 above, with respect to any claim against the Company.

10. Insurance. The Company shall have no obligation to procure insurance on behalf of Customer except as specifically provided for herein, and unless specifically agreed in writing, the Company assumes no responsibility to effect insurance on any export or import shipment. The Company will make reasonable efforts to obtain marine, fire, theft and other insurance upon the goods only after specific written instructions have been received from the Customer and accepted by the Company in sufficient time prior to shipment from the point of origin, and the Customer at the same time states specifically the kind and amount of insurance to be placed. The Company does not undertake or warrant that such insurance can or will be placed. Unless the Customer has its own open marine policy and instructs the Company to effect insurance under such policy, insurance is to be effected with one or more insurance companies or other underwriters to be selected by the Company. Any insurance placed shall be governed by the certificate or policy issued and will only be effective when accepted by such insurance companies or underwriters. Should an insurer dispute its liability for any reason, the insured shall have recourse against the insurer only and the Company shall not be under any responsibility of liability in relation thereto, notwithstanding that the premium upon the policy may not be at the same rates as that charged or paid to the Company by the Customer, or that the shipment was insured under a policy in the name of the Company. Customer agrees to pay all insurance premiums and any cost of the Company for arranging the same. If for any reason the goods are held in warehouse, or elsewhere, the same will not be covered by any insurance, unless the Company receives and accepts written instructions from the Customer requesting such additional coverage.

11. Limitation of Liability for Loss; Warranty Disclaimer. In the absence of additional coverage under paragraph 10, above, the Company's liability shall be limited to the following

(c) The Customer agrees that the Company shall, in no event, be liable for consequential, indirect, incidental, punitive, statutory or special damages even if the Company has been on notice of the possibility of such damages.

(d) Except as specifically set forth herein, and as required by law or regulation, the Company makes no express or implied warranties in connection with its services or those procured from Third Parties.

The Company shall not be under any obligation to advance freight charges, Customs duties or taxes, insurance charges, per diem charges, demurrage charges, storage fees or other charges owed to third parties by the Customer on any shipment, nor shall any advance by the Company be construed as a waiver of the provisions hereof. In the event that the Company should advance any such monies to any person or entity that subsequently refunds all or any portion thereof to the Customer, and the Customer at the time of the refund, has not reimbursed the Company for those monies, then any portion of the refund corresponding to such unpaid, advance monies, and any interest paid thereon, shall be deemed the exclusive property of the Company to which the Customer shall have no claim, and which the Customer shall return to the Company immediately upon receipt.
